

Opinions as to the Results of the Recent Tidal Wave and Cyclonic Disturbance—
"What Will the Harvest Be?"

TARIFF PICTURES.

In the fiscal year 1890, before the McKinley Tariff, we purchased products of the United Kingdom to the value of $160,468,056.

The new Tariff decreased our purchases to $150,300,881.

In 1892, Did England, therefore, reduce her purchases of us, as the Free-trader declares must always be the case under such circumstances? On the contrary, our exports to the United Kingdom, which were valued at $144,459,009

in 1890, had grown to $142,957,888

in 1892. This illustrates the difference between Free-trade theories and actual facts.

—New York Press.

Tammany will head the procession in the big inauguration parade in Washington. It is to be observed that Tammany is very largely at the front now-days.

Governor Flower's idea that quarantine is not a National matter lacks consistency. The coast line is certainly a National affair, and the means for guarding it against pestilence must be.

The whole country would rejoice if Mr. Cleveland were to take a few falls out of Tammany. But the tiger is sick and sinewy, and, alas, Grover is fat and slow, and the country's plaudits will be stayed.

It is kind of the Third party in Kansas to "concede" the organization of the Legislature to the Republicans. It is much as if Messrs. Smith and Jones should "concede" Farmer Brown's right to cultivate his own cornfield.

It must have been a campaign far out of a job who started that gory tale about a wholesale riot and massacre in North Carolina. The story was full of gunpowder and blood, but they did no killing outside of the author's sanguinary mind.

If any wicked express company imagines that it can corrode Mr. Cleveland's highly polished anti-corporation sentiments by sending him a free pass it is badly mistaken, that's all. Mr. Cleveland does all his business by slow freight, and those who are waiting for Cabinet consignments can testify.

Senator Vest of Missouri calls Indian Commissioner Morgan "a narrow-minded bigot," but there's no use getting mad at anything Vest says. Only a little while ago he announced that he was going to institute "a war of extermination upon the protected industries," but people didn't get scared or angry. They knew that Vest's armament is a noisy but harmless popgun.

It is intimated that Mr. Cleveland has notified Speaker Crisp that the Ways and Means Committee of the new House must be made up of Tariff smashers and Free-traders, and that Mr. Crisp has promised, in the event of his re-election to the Speakership, to obey orders. What with supervising the organization of Congress and indirectly aiding in electing Mr. Murphy to the Senate from New York, Mr. Cleveland is so busy nowadays that he has to take his dinner pail along with him when he goes to work.

The name of Isaac Pusey Gray seems to have been eliminated from all the Cabinet states recently. Mr. Gray appears to be in very hard luck. He was promised the nomination for Vice-President, but missed it by the Hill men's intrigues. Then, it is said, he was induced to take off his coat and work for the success of the Democratic ticket with the understanding that he would be invited to take a seat in Mr. Cleveland's Cabinet, but according to the latest advice there is absolutely no hope for the Indiana statesman.

LOST OPPORTUNITIES.

When I was a tiny lad,
A very little fellow,
Wore a kind of skirt of plaid
And a coat of yellow.

Then I thought that little girls
Were very far below me,
But I left my yellow curie,
And now you wouldn't know me.

Then I used to smell the kiss
That they sometimes offered;
Now, alas! Laulus earthly bliss
Has left me.

Would that I even might wear
Shining curie of yellow!
Girls would find me now, I'll swear,
A wiser little fellow.

The hope of the party lies in the expansion of a stanch Republican press. The Republicans are rapidly losing ground, and must resort to a Democratic paper to the exclusion of one of his own party newspapers to insure to the Republicans power.

Circulation More Than 1,000 Daily.

The editor of The Newport Journal assails THE PUBLIC LEDGER in a series of interrogatories which he evidently considers unanswerable unless the editor of this paper commits himself to a belief that every man in the Democratic party is a traitor to his country.

The disappearance of our fleet from the seas is a calamity and a disgrace affecting the interests and reputation of the American people. Its restoration to its rightful place has met with the stubborn and combined resistance of the Democratic party in both branches of Congress.

That party will have nothing to do with navigation bonuses or liberal payments for the coastwise. It abhors all liberal policies. It has always been a party of obstruction and hostility to new ideas. With the threatened importation of cholera, this other evil of immigration, the party, as admitted by one of their prominent leaders a few days ago, is afraid to restrict immigration for fear of losing the foreign vote, which, in the cities of New York and Chicago, made the election of Grover CLEVELAND possible. The Democratic party is distinctly foreign in its make up and in its nature.

"NEWPORT News is Way of Mayville" is how The Kentucky Journal heads it. Certainly; how else can you get there?

An old snooper named WILLIAM MILLER, widower, worth $20,000, got up a correspondence with Miss NANCY SHAW out in Indiana. As a stroke of economy he used "washed" postage stamp on his letters. He will have six months in jail to figure out how much he saved, and will also pay a fine of $100. The fellow, from his economic tendencies, must belong in Skidnitt HOLMAN's District.

A PHILADELPHIA Free-trade paper, The Record, advocates placing a duty of one and one-half cents per pound on sugar, two cents on coffee and five cents on tea. This paper represents the party which has proved about a "free breakfast table" for the poor laborer, demanding the fate of the working man who had to eat his breakfast off a Metal Kinley tin plate that was taxed 24 per cent! The only Americans we ever knew that in any considerable numbers ate off tin plates and drank out of tin cans were the "pauper soldiers" now so utterly despised by the Democratic Free-traders.

KENTUCKY WEATHER REPORT.

What We May Expect Between This Time and To-Morrow Evening.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.

Last month L. V. Harkness of Lexington paid $4,500 for a mare and Monday she died.

W. R. MOCK, universally known as "Dolph" Mock, died in Boyle County Monday. He was a generous man, beloved by all.

WILLIE HANS says lines and rope were so scarce in Cincinnati Sunday that Paris Brown chased a Newport dog four miles out in the country to get the twine tied to his tail, attached to an old oyster can.

A compromise has been effected with the C. and O. operators. They are to receive not less than $40 per month on all divisions except the Huntington Division, where the minimum salary will be $45 per month.

The Court of Appeals has affirmed the judgment rendered in favor of the boy named Smith at Covington who had his legs cut off by a Kentucky Central Railroad train against that road, and the lad will get $15,000 damages.

The man caught at Stark, Fla., is not Pope, the abounding teller who stole $70,000 from the Louisville City National Bank. He is a tramp who bears a close resemblance to President Leech thinks that Pope will never be found and withdraws the offer of the $3,000 reward.

The report of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway for the six months ended December shows that all fixed charges and a sum of $100,000 were earned, and also included the operating expenses for that period which consist of rent of rails, ties, ballast and other material necessary for permanent work. The report adds: "Improvements for the last four years have brought the road up to the highest standard."

A SCHEM

Comes to Grief in the Federal Court at Indianapolis.

He Used the United States Mails to Defraud the Public.

Eighteen Months' Imprisonment, $2000
Fines and Costs—Indictment Hanging
Over Him in Missouri, Michigan,
Wisconsin and Pennsylvania.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 11.—Harry Hardman, alias H. A. Hansen, alias M. V. B. Stuart, has finally run up against his fate. For the past two days he has been on trial before a federal court for using the mails for fraudulent purposes. Tuesday the jury returned a verdict of guilty, and Judge Baker sentenced him to eighteen months' imprisonment, the full extent of the law. He was given $2000 and costs, and costs will be levied during the trial that Hardman once served time in Missouri for embezzlement and bank robbery. There are indictments hanging over him for fraudulently using the mails in Missouri, Michigan, Wisconsin and Pennsylvania. Hardman was arrested in this city for abusing his wife. Her first husband was named Creasy. She had a daughter 18 years old, who was on the witness stand Monday and Tuesday, and proved herself a sharp and resourceful witness. Her second husband, Hardman, was convicted. At the time of his arrest Hardman was preparing to jump the city, and in his valise were found blanks, circulars and all the paraphernalia of a swindler. He was working on a scheme under guise of fictitious collecting agency. It was known as the American Credit Co., and it was part of a so-called Anglo-American Surety Co., of Windsor, Can.

Under the full charge Stuart was apprehended at all points in the country, who forwarded money for bonds to the Anglo-
American Co., which was himself, and he frequently crossed to Canada to cash the remittances. Every important city in the country reported one or more victims and the secret service spent months trying to find the man who was the head of the gang, who jumped from point to point with the agility of a flea.

The importance of Hardman's arrest was not realized until a reporter called him to express the name of the American Credit Co., documents from which he was identified as the man. He answered the inquiry by faking. Inspector Leatherman saw an account of this incident in a newspaper and hastened here and landed his man dead to rights. During the trial Hardman's wife, Mrs. Stuart, was another party altogether, and that she had conspired against him.

DROWNED BY RATS.

Thirty Miners at the Wheal O'Mine at Cornwall, England, were drowned by rats.

LONDON, Jan. 11.—A calamitous accident occurred Tuesday at Penzance, Cornwall. While a number of men were at work in the Wheal O'Mine at the time the water began to rush in and drowned many of the miners. As soon as the rush of the water was heard those nearest to the main shaft rushed into the cage and were quickly drawn to the surface. Others at a distance were overcome by the water and their cries were heard reverberating through the galleries. The number drowned has been ascertained to be thirty.

Later dispatches from Penzance state that the water which floods the Wheal O'Mine comes from an adjacent mine which has been closed for 15 years. Water had accumulated in a vast quantity in the abandoned mine, and suddenly burst its way through. Hundreds of thousands of tons of water poured into the Wheal O'Mine, sweeping away ladders, flooding the workings and destroying life.

Five men have been injured, but none killed. The fire burned over 35,000 feet of haul Hecht Bros.'s, it is estimated, will reach $500,000, and the aggregate loss $1,000,000. The fire started in Hecht Bros., from it, is said, the explosion of a boiler.

The flames moved rapidly along Federal street to Summer street, and as a result eight or ten buildings are badly damaged and several other completely burned out. District Chief Miller fell from a ladder, but was not badly injured.

BENJ. BUTLER,

Soldier, Lawyer and Statesman, Dies Suddenly.

It Was Caused by Heart Failure, Probably the Result of Age.

His Death Occurred in Washington, Early Wednesday Morning. The Cause Decided Against Him in the Supreme Court May Have Had an Effect.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—Benjamin F. Butler, the lawyer, statesman, politician and soldier who had been a leader in his Washington residence, died at his Washington residence, No. 13, Thirty-Ninth Avenue, southeast, at about twenty minutes past one o'clock Wednesday morning. The general has always, to a more or less extent, made his residence in Washington, although many of the scenes of his political career have been located elsewhere. During the present winter a case which had been decided against him in the highest courts of the state of Massachusetts, and in which he had an appeal to the U. S. supreme court, the general and his wife were in residence in this city. Every Monday he was a familiar figure at the sessions of that body, when the decisions were handed down.

His age, as well as the general impairment of his health, while listening to the oral decisions, looking for his own and the mind of each justice, and the result of the case again. Finally a few weeks ago, the case was decided against him. Whether or not the loss of this case, to which he had paid such close attention, brought anything more than the sorrow of a general defeat will not be known.

His death created an immense surprise, as it was not even known that he was ailing, any more than any man who had lived and labored so long would be. The announcement this morning that he had died at his home from the heart created more than a little surprise, and the hour of the night details of his taking off were more than meager.

Murphy Proves an Easy Winner.

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 11.—The assembly chamber was filled with democrats of high and low degree, and the galleries, too, were packed to the last vestige of room, when the democratic members of the senate and assembly met in joint caucus to fix upon a candidate to succeed U. S. Senator Frank H. Hobson. Hon. Edward Murphy, Jr., of Troy, and Hon. Bourke Cockran, of Albany, were the two leaders. A telegram from Mr. Cockran stated that Mr. Murphy was read saying that he was not a candidate. Balloting then commenced. The total number of votes cast was 90, of which Edward Murphy received 85 and Bourke Cockran 5. The result was read and the chair announced the nomination of Mr. Murphy. Senator Brown immediately moved the caucus adjourn, which was ordered without making the nomination of Mr. Murphy unanimous.

Political War in Kansas.

TOPEKA, Kas., Jan. 11.—The fight for U. S. Senator is fairly on. A most grave situation exists in the Kansas legislature, in which the most intense interest, and the greatest interest, two separate organizations were perfected in the house Tuesday. A conflict between the opposing forces seemed for a time unavoidable. The clash occurred at the very outset. The popular candidate to the ballot, and then the republicans proceeded to act as independents. Neither side paid the slightest heed to the proceedings or protests of the other. The two houses were both organized at the same time and in the same place, and both were in session in representative hall Tuesday evening.

OMAHA, Neb., Jan. 11.—Rev. Albert Fredericks and his wife were sandbagged and robbed in one of the principal streets. They were walking on Tenth street, near Farnam, when the minister, known as himself, by a violent blow on the head, and then, after a similar blow, stole Mrs. Fredericks' shopping bag, containing about $10, was snatched by the robbers, but before they could get a roll of bills out of the minister's pocket they were frightened away. Both were slightly injured in the collision. Mr. Fredericks is a returned missionary from Africa, and was spending a short time with friends in this city.

Hotel Writers' strike.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 11.—Mr. Baldwin, of the Hotel Bates, once so ardent in his efforts to array themselves in the most attractive dress, it was conditioned that he should purchase the suite, the price to be taken from their wages. Tuesday he held back the "pries" from their wages, and Tuesday evening thirty-five of the waiters struck at the supper hour and the hotel route they take is now uncertain.

Blaine Slightly Wounded.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—There was no radical change in Blaine's condition Tuesday. He has partially recovered from his severe relapse of Monday night, and no immediate dissolution is looked for. One of his physicians now remains constantly in the Blaine mansion.

Decided Against the Treasury.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 11.—The surest proof of the Monday firm judgment in the treasury suit. Ex-treasurers and bondsmen are thereby required to return to the state about $600,000, received as interest on state money, deposited by treasurers in state banks.

A TRAMP'S MISHAP.

It Was from a Platform in a Zinc Works
Gave a Nest of Scampi.

Two men, who were zinc miners, were at work on one of the furnaces in the Newark Zinc works when they detected the smell of burning flesh and were horrified to see blood trickling down some pipes overhead. One of the miners, who was on the roof, had crawled on to one of the platforms over the nests of pipes. Beneath the platform on the pipes the workmen saw the body of a man. The clothing had been burned from the body. It took several workmen half an hour to identify the man. There is nothing to lead to the man's identity. None of the workmen are missing, and it is believed the victim is a tramp who crawled on the platform to sleep and was overcome by gas from the furnaces. It is supposed that the gas from the furnaces had attempted to reach the shed, but in his struggle rolled from the platform to the nests of pipes, which formed a gridiron which he was slowly roasted to death.

BREAKS DOWN.

Chief Allison, of Department of Manufactures, dies.

CHICAGO, Jan. 11.—It is feared that Chief Allison's days of usefulness as chief of the department of manufactures are numbered. While he was returning from the south his health has again steadily declined from overwork, and he is unable to leave his room.

Director General Davis Tuesday morning took permanent charge of this department, which has been subject to the most unusual work since the arrival of Mr. Allison's breakdown is attributed to the fact that he had five times as many applications for space as could be granted, and, therefore, of a sensitive nature, worried over, having to reject so many applications.

Gold Extremist U-sated.

GREEN RIVER, Utah, Jan. 11.—Prospectors are flocking in fully equipped for San Juan, Henry mountains and Green and Colorado rivers. The local gold excitement continues.

There is also a great deal of work on the Green river base.

The river is staked for three miles. Prospectors are taking out from $3 to $5 per day in sight of the railroad. The formation is almost identical with American river base in California. Old miners report coarse gold in the bed of the river.

Goethals, engineer in charge of Tennessee river improvements, has been awarded the title of knight of the order of the lily, which will be the highest in the United States, having a list of twenty-five feet. It will be 350 feet long and eighty feet wide. Work will begin on it as soon as the title to the land can be had.

A Woman Refuses to Give Up.

FOXBORO, Mass., Jan. 11.—Mrs. E. F. Storer, a defunct popular candidate for re-election to the office of county superintendent, refused to resign the office to W. A. Owens. Mr. Owens was elected by ten votes on the face of return, but Mrs. Storer declared that the two were tied, and that the two votes will be served upon her Wednesday, and she will be ejected from the office by the sheriff.

The Oklahoma Legislature.

GUTHRIE, Okla., Jan. 11.—The legislative convenes at noon Tuesday. The republicans, who organized the upper house, and the democrats the lower. The upper assembly is republicans, 5 democrats and 100 republicans, the lower house, 12 republicans, 10 democrats, 4 populars. The governor has been busy for some time preparing his message.

First Guest Strength Wining.

OMAHA, Neb., Jan. 11.—The popular candidate for the lower portion of the state, Mr. H. C. Caldwell, and the republicans proceeded to act as independents. Neither side paid the slightest heed to the proceedings or protests of the other. The two houses were both organized at the same time and in the same place, and both were in session in representative hall Tuesday evening.

The Beer War in Kansas.

He has expressed his intention of voting for the repeal as soon as the matter is brought before the house.

WHEELING, W. Va., Jan. 11.—In two days this city has had twelve narrow escapes from destruction, fires in the hotel and other buildings. One of these fires has been due to the unseasonable of the natural gas supply, and but for their early discovery all of them would have resulted disastrously.
